9 v.

10 NAPA COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF
11 CORRECTIONS, et al.,

12 Defendants.

Case No. 18-cv-04751-SI

ORDER RE. SERVICE OF PROCESS

13 This matter is now before the court to address a service of process problem. On April 1,
14 2019, service of process was ordered on two defendants at the Napa County Jail: correctional officer
15 Merrill and correctional lieutenant Wilson. Docket No. 13. The Marshal later reported that he was 16 unable to serve process on these defendants because someone at the front desk of the jail said “they 17 do not accept civil summons for C.O.s.” Docket Nos. 16 and 17. Court staff later made inquiries
18 and learned from a supervisor at the Napa County Department of Corrections that the front desk
19 should accept service of process if the summonses were reissued.

Accordingly,

lieutenant Wilson, both of whom apparently are on the correctional staff at the Napa County Jail.
